

Emerson Joins the Carrier Alliance Supplier Program

March 11, 2021

Strategic agreement will drive greater collaboration and innovation

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla., March 11, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Carrier Global Corporation (NYSE: CARR), the leading global provider of healthy, safe and sustainable building and cold chain solutions, is pleased to announce that Emerson (NYSE: EMR), a global technology, software and engineering leader providing innovative solutions for customers in industrial, commercial and residential markets, has joined the Carrier Alliance program. As part of the program, Emerson will continue to provide leading-edge software and technologies from its air conditioning and cold chain businesses, such as compressors, valves, and sensors, to a range of products throughout the Carrier portfolio.

"This agreement enhances our longstanding relationship with Emerson and will ultimately benefit the industries and customers we serve," said Rishi Grover, Senior Vice President, Operations, Carrier. "Our companies share a tireless focus on technology and innovation and by welcoming Emerson to the Alliance program and expanding our collaborative design efforts, we'll be better positioned to offer customers cutting-edge solutions with an emphasis on improved data analytics and quality."

Emerson and Carrier will continue collaborating to develop and deploy a robust set of leading technologies and solutions throughout Carrier's HVAC and Refrigeration segments serving residential, commercial and transportation markets. Carrier has long leveraged Emerson's Copeland™ compressors, White-Rodgers™ valves, controls and thermostats, and Therm-O-Disc™ sensors in its products. Emerson's Copeland compressors have been integral to Carrier's product portfolio and will be a critical component of Carrier's offering to meet or exceed higher Seasonal Energy Efficiency Ratio (SEER) rating requirements beginning in 2023.

"We are committed to serving as a leader in sustainable technologies – and our customers are increasingly seeking these advanced solutions," said Jamie Froedge, Executive President, Emerson's Commercial & Residential Solutions business. "Joining the Carrier Alliance is an exciting step forward for Emerson, and a reflection of our commitment to help our industries confidently navigate forthcoming regulatory challenges and meet shifting demand in this space."
